NRS 602.055 Certificate of Termination

1. Any person who has filed a certificate may, upon the termination of the business or his ownership in it, file with the county clerk where the certificate is on file a certificate of termination stating that the person who filed the certificate has terminated the business being conducted under the assumed or fictitious name or his ownership in it and the date of the termination. You must list the business name exactly as it was originally filed.

2. The certificate of termination must be signed in the same manner as required by NRS 602.020, except that it is sufficient if signed in the case of a general partnership by only one partner or in the case of a trust by only one trustee. The certificate must contain owner/corporate name, address, and, for a corporation, the name and title of the officer signing the document.

3. Upon the filing of a certificate of termination, the county clerk shall note the termination in the book or other suitable index required by NRS 602.050.

PLEASE COMPLETE THE ATTACHED CERTIFICATE OF TERMINATION OF FICTITIOUS FIRM NAME AND SIGN BEFORE A NOTARY PUBLIC. THE NOTARY WILL COMPLETE THE BOTTOM PORTION OF THE FORM.
